

Mark B. Roath's Biography

I began my employment as City Manager for the City of Alamogordo, New Mexico in October, 2009. Prior to being employed in Alamogordo, I worked in a similar position with the City of McAlester, Oklahoma, a community in Southeast Oklahoma. I have been in municipal management for twenty-six years, and worked in the states of Florida, Ohio, Oklahoma, Nebraska, and Texas prior to accepting my current position in New Mexico.

I hold a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from the University of Montana; a Master of Arts degree in Political Science, with an emphasis on Public Administration, from Ohio University and a Juris Doctorate degree in Law from the University of Tulsa. I am currently licensed to practice law in the State of Oklahoma.

Besides my professional and educational experience, I served in the U.S. Navy in 1969. In addition, I served in the Peace Corps, as a volunteer, in Costa Rica, Central America from 1973 to 1975.

I am a member of the International City Management Association, the New Mexico Municipal League, and the Oklahoma Bar Association.

I am married and my wife's name is Zeneida and we have two adult daughters, Rebecca and Jessica, who are themselves married.
