

Local Author Book Talk and Signing

Wednesday April 29 6:00 p.m.
Alamogordo Public Library Southwest Room

Amy M. Bennett is an Otero County resident and award winning mystery novelist. She is the author of the Black Horse Campground Mystery series, which is set in a fictional county in southwest New Mexico. Amy has blended the rustic feel of contemporary western stories and page-turner cozy mysteries into a fantastic series which appeals to a wide audience. Since the 2013 debut of the first novel in the series, End of the Road, The Black Horse Campground Mysteries have earned 44 five-star reviews on Amazon.com and many loyal fans. Amy will be discussing and signing her third mystery novel in the Black Horse Campground Mystery series, No Vacancy.

This event is free and open to the public.
Light refreshments will be served.
Call 439-4148 for more information.

