New Playground Almost Ready to Open

Alamogordo, NM Friday, October 5, 2018 The new playground at the site of the former Kids Kingdom is almost ready to open. The new playground equipment has been installed along with pavilions, shade structures, picnic tables, a stone retaining wall and much more. Even though the space looks like it is ready for playtime, there is still a little more work to be done. Currently there are open trenches throughout the space so that electrical conduit and sprinkler lines can be added. This is a public reminder, despite the construction fence removal, the new playground is not completed or open to the public at this time. Improvements to the area are still in progress and the anticipated completion of the project is mid-November. More information about the opening of the new playground will be available soon.
