Keep Alamogordo Beautiful Volunteer Opportunity

Alamogordo, NM Thursday, September 17, 2020 On Saturday, September 26th from 8 am to 2pm, Keep Alamogordo Beautiful (KAB) will again be beautifying Griggs Sports Complex. This month's project involves landscaping between the complex and Fairgrounds Rd. Volunteers will be laying down landscape fabric, red mesa rock, and large accent rocks! KAB will provide the tools and supplies, but volunteers are welcome to bring metal racks, shovels, and gloves if they wish. This is a great volunteer opportunity! Fatwood BBQ & Pizza will be sponsoring lunch & Trisha Robert's Agency, Farmer's Insurance will be providing water of the event.

Volunteers are asked to practice social distancing, and to follow all current New Mexico public health orders. A volunteer check-in tent will be set up. If you have questions about this project please contact Josh Sides, KAB Program Coordinator at 575-415-7322 or jsides@ci.alamogordo.nm.us. Thank you for helping us Keep Alamogordo Beautiful!

Results of the Griggs Sports Complex Painting Event on August 29, 2020

- 75 volunteers signed in
- Approximately 5,716 square feet painted
- Total value of volunteer time: $7,407
- Cost/Benefit Ratio: $1.75 (this means for every dollar that was spent by the City of Alamogordo between employee costs, brush hog rental, etc., KAB gave back $1.75 in volunteer services.
