Business Registration Renewals

All City of Alamogordo Business Registrations expire on December 31st and must be renewed, beginning December 1st. Please carefully review your renewal form; note any updates; sign and submit with your $35.00 payment. Any renewals received after January 31st incur an additional $10.00 fee. The City Clerk's Office will no longer issue Business Registrations for businesses located outside of city limits, with the only exception being businesses conducting contract work with the City government. If you do not receive or have lost your renewal form or have any questions, please contact the City Clerk's Office at (575) 439-4100, option 6. Thank you for your continued business in the City of Alamogordo.

City Hall is Closed from 12pm to 1pm Daily

December 14th - A Mariachi Christmas! Ballet folklorico dancers and mariachis help celebrate Christmas with violins, horns, and Mexican traditions.

January 21st to 22nd - Bettman & Halpin play original Folk/Americana. Their concerts combine high-energy upbeat bluegrass/roots inspired compositions, beautiful ballads with soaring vocals and heartfelt lyrics. They have been touring as a duo since 2008, and incorporating a trio and quartet since 2013.

100% Otero helps residents live safe, healthy, and productive lives by strengthening ten vital services, including Job Training. Local job training is based on local job openings. According to Workforce Connections, most job openings in Otero County are in Health Care and Social Assistance, Educational Services, and Hospitality and Food Services.

Help is available for resume writing, job interviewing, completing high school educations, financing job training, and on-the-job training. Online, self-paced training is available to prepare you for entry or advancement in your career. Occupational training and industry certification can help you get and keep a job.

For more information about the services listed above or about the 100% Otero Job Training Action Team, contact: peg.crim@100otero.org
