100% Community OTERO
Weaving It ALL Together

100% Otero has launched a murals project using public art to increase awareness of the need to address Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs), trauma and social adversity.

Jazmin Saenz, an El Paso artist who grew up in Chaparral along with students from Chaparral Middle and High Schools are painting their design on the Chaparral Fire Station, 500 East Lisa Drive.

The Alamogordo mural, designed by Tularosa High School Art Teacher & Artist, Kevin Baker will be at The Counseling Center, 1900 E. 10th St.

These murals are more than artwork; they are projects that share the importance of working together to take care of one another. To help paint the Alamogordo mural, email cally.finnegan@100otero.org. To contribute financially visit <https://bit.ly/3xpzW8C> or mail a check to Community Foundation of Southern New Mexico, ATTN: 100% Otero, 2640 El Paseo Road, Las Cruces, NM 88011.

YOUR LOVED ONES DESERVE OUR BEST CARE

ANNOUNCING
Concierge Service at GRCMC

Patty Najar
Patient Advocate Concierge

This service is focused on providing for the non-clinical needs of patients during hospital admissions and emergency room visits. The Concierge Service at GRCMC also works with identified family members to keep the lines of communication open. Several non-clinical comfort measures are important to patients when they are away from home. Providing for these concerns can make a difference in the hospital experience when patients are stressed, away from home and not feeling well.
