Climb the Cube 9/11 Memorial Stair Climb Saturday, September 14, 2024 at the New Mexico Museum of Space History

The Alamogordo Fire Department and New Mexico Museum of Space History announce the Climb the Cube Memorial Stair Climb. This memorial stair climb pays tribute to the first responders who made the ultimate sacrifice on September 11, 2001. Participants will climb the equivalent of 110 stories, symbolizing the heroic ascent made by first responders in the World Trade Center towers. Register to participate in the Memorial Stair Climb.

Wedding & Quinceañera Expo Saturday, September 14, 2024 at the Sgt. Willie Estrada Memorial Civic Center

Uptown Rentals' first ever Wedding and Quinceañera Expo! From noon to 4 pm, scope out our indoor vendors, make new connections, listen to live music, and grab some food or drink from local food trucks! There will be a bounce house for the kids and a runway show beginning at 4 pm! $5 per guest! The first 200 guests get a swag bag, notepad and pen, and a stemless champagne glass! Our "Brides to Be" and "Birthday Guests" get a little extra something at the door! After the first 200 people, our guests will still receive a stemless champagne glass!

Pre-registration for the Expo is now open!

Water Service Line Survey

The nation's community water departments have been mandated by the Environmental Protection Agency to identify every water customer's service line (the water line coming into your residence) as well as the identification of your interior plumbing. Residents need to investigate the main water line that enters their residence or facility and respond to the City of Alamogordo Utilities Department with the type of water line found on the inside and the material used for most of the interior plumbing.
