Dudley School Community Center

Holloman AFB Community Volunteers as part of Casa Motors' "Casa Big Give"

Volunteers from the Holloman Air Force Base 6th Attack Squadron partnered in volunteering to build, paint, lay floor and ceiling panels and do the demanding work of restoration of Dudley School. This group included 16 volunteers from the 6th Attack Group that had put in long hours to bring the building to 95% of completion!

Per a statement from Joe Lewandowski, spokesperson and project lead from the Tularosa Basin Historic Society, "These great individuals jumped right in and showed the pride of being involved in this great endeavor. This is part of the 'Big Give Back' sponsored by Casa Motors, with many AF groups working on numerous jobs throughout Alamogordo. We were honored that this group selected our project, and we owe them a huge debt of gratitude for their hard work."
