City of Alamogordo

New Assistant City Manager

Alamogordo, NM Thursday, January 16, 2020 The City of Alamogordo is happy to announce the promotion of our Finance Director, Stephanie Hernandez, to the position of Assistant City Manager. Hernandez was born and raised in Alamogordo and graduated NMSU-A with an associates degree. After graduating, she moved to Las Cruces to continue her studies and began working for New Mexico State University. At NMSU she received a Bachelors in Accounting, a Bachelors in Economics, a Masters in Economics with Public Utility certification and a Masters in Education, Leadership, and Administration. She worked at NMSU for 20 years in various positions including Budget, Payroll, Investments, and assistant Director for the NMSU Foundation. Hernandez is currently in the process of applying for a PHD program at NMSU. “In the short time that Stephanie has worked for the City, she and her finance department staff have accomplished many great things. I am looking forward to working even closer with her to continue to move our City forward,” said City Manager Brian Cesar.

Hernandez and her husband of 16 years, who is also an Alamogordo Tiger, have 5 children and 2 granddaughters. She felt it was time to come home to be with their parents and wanted to raise her two young boys here in Alamogordo. Hernandez said, “I am extremely honored to be selected as the Assistant City Manager. This is an amazing, beautiful City with countless possibilities. I firmly believe we have tremendous opportunities to show case Alamogordo’s beauty, bring economic growth, and financial prosperity.”
